

EXHIBIT A

these items are detailed in the inventory attached to this Declaration as Exhibit B. However, Exhibit B is a non-comprehensive list of personal items I would like to retrieve.

4. On Monday, November 28, 2022, I met Mr. Thomas at his office to collect my personal mail. We discussed scheduling a mutually agreeable time to collect my personal property located at 4107 Rock Creek and 2999 Turtle Creek. During this conversation, Mr. Thomas indicated that he would be available to meet me at 4107 Rock Creek the following day, on Tuesday, November 29, 2022, so that I could collect my personal items from that property. Mr. Thomas told me that I would have to coordinate with his attorney, Tim Wells (“Mr. Wells”), to schedule a time to collect my things from the 2999 Turtle Creek property.
5. I discussed with Mr. Thomas the types of items I sought to collect from the 4107 Rock Creek and 2999 Turtle Creek properties. I explained that I hoped to gather my clothes, books, and personal files (such as my birth certificate and social security card). I informed Mr. Thomas that I kept a trailer and John Deere 790 tractor at the 2999 Turtle Creek Property. Mr. Thomas said he would release the trailer and John Deere 790 tractor to me if I provided proof of ownership in writing. Mr. Thomas also indicated he was not opposed to releasing the other items of my personal property back to me.
6. On Tuesday, November 29, 2022, I confirmed with Mr. Thomas via text message that he would be at 4107 Rock Creek and that he would allow me to come to the property to collect my personal items. Mr. Thomas confirmed that I could get my clothes if I met him at 4017 Rock Creek at 1:30 p.m. Once I arrived at 4107 Rock Creek, Mr. Thomas allowed me to place my clothes in bags. I was also allowed to collect other personal items from drawers after showing them to Mr. Thomas for his approval. However, once I started to remove my personal books and college textbooks from the shelves, Mr. Thomas mentioned that a purchase contract for the 4107 Rock Creek Property may require everything to be sold with the house. Mr. Thomas then instructed me that he did not want it to look obvious that I had taken some of the books from the shelves. Mr. Thomas only allowed me to collect a small number of my personal books.
7. Also on Tuesday, November 29, 2022, I contacted Mr. Wells via text message to schedule a time to collect my personal property from 2999 Turtle Creek. Mr. Wells did not respond. To date, I have not been able to collect my personal property from 2999 Turtle Creek.
8. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on December 7, 2022.
